Public Comments - Comments may not exceed three minutes per person. Please state your name and physical address when making public comments.

Margaret Brumm spoke about the Commission's recent decision to accept the grant for citywide recycling carts, which she said lacks common sense.

Matt Luttenberger discussed Lakeview Arena operations, the arena budget and the parks and recreation five-year master plan.

Comments from the Commission

Commissioner Davis thanked Margaret Brumm for her efforts to recycle cigarette butts locally.

Commissioner Hanley urged everyone who didn't see it live to go back and watch the City Commission's special meeting from earlier tonight.

Mayor Pro Tem Mayer echoed both of the previous comments.

Commissioner Hill thanked citizens for being engaged. She praised the work of the Sister Cities group, and she asked questions about the proposed project at the former hospital site.

Commissioner Stonehouse said the previous meeting was an important one. He also stated that his view of the five-year master plan mentioned earlier is that it is a wish list and not a must-do list.

Mayor Smith said tonight's special meeting is available on YouTube. She said residents should watch the meeting and reach out to the Commission with questions or concerns they have about the proposed change to the general operating millage. She also wished everyone a belated, but happy, Mother's Day.

Comments from the City Manager

City Manager Karen Kovacs said her Community Office Hours are coming up, and she said there is a meeting tentatively planned for next week to discuss the project at the old hospital, and to consider scheduling a public hearing on a brownfield plan for the project.

Adjournment

Mayor Smith adjourned the meeting at 6:51 p.m.

Jennifer A. Smith, Mayor

Kyle Whitney, City Clerk
